FORREST L. HOSTETLER
 Funeral services for Forest LeRoy Hostetler, 50, of 1820 Torrance Blvd., were held Monday morning at the Halver-son-Leavell Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman of the First Methodist Church of Torrance officiating. Mr. Hostetler, a native of Minot, N.D., had lived here for three years prior to his death Friday.
 Before his death, he was employed for two years as a security guard by the Pacific Plant Protection Co.
 Surviving Mr. Hostetler are his widow, Elsie, of the home address; a son, Roy, of Alberta, Canada, and three grandchildren. Interment was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

LILLIAN SNOW
 Notice of funeral services for Mrs. Lillian Snow, 55, wife of Jack Snow, 1520 Beech Ave., published here Sunday incorrectly identified her as Helen Snow. Mrs. Snow, who had resided here for 33 years, was assistant registrar at Harbor General Hospital for 14 years. She was a member of St. Cecilia's Guild at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and the Rev. Hugh Percy, rector of St. Andrew's, officiated at services Tuesday at Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel.
 The name of one sister surviving Mrs. Snow also was listed incorrectly. She is survived by two sisters, Carrie Squires and Mary Becker, both of Ohio, and three brothers, George, John and Frank Heitche. Interment was at Green Hills Memorial Park.

 according to Manager Wilcox. Last year's "Good Neighbor," High School Administrator Cliff Graybehl, is recuperating at his home this week at 1122 Maple Ave. after undergoing throat surgery. He plugged the YMCA breakfast as an outstanding event yesterday by writing out his best wishes for his successor on a handy slate. He can't talk yet, but he can walk, and he promises to be at the breakfast himself Saturday.

... Zoning

 and Councilman Willys Blount supported the planning commission's recommendation that the rezoning be denied.
 The first roll call on the matter was split 3-3 with Councilman J. A. Beasley still absent after a heart attack. At the end of the voting, Councilman George Bradford asked to change his vote to favor the rezoning. He did not explain the reason for his switch.
 School Superintendent J. H. Hull at Tuesday's board session placed some of the blame for the school's present financing dilemma on the city's past rezoning policies which have opened up industrial land for residential development.

Ham-mell, Kern County Central Labor Council official.

PROPOSITION 6, appearing on the November ballot, would provide for assessment of golf courses as recreational facilities and not as potential commercial or industrial sites. It is not a tax exemption nor a tax subsidy.
 Predicting overwhelming labor support of Proposition 6, the committee issued the following statement:

 "Labor has always believed in a program of more recreational facilities in the state. In this connection, it is well known that these recreational areas have contributed to the welfare of our youth, in providing their facilities for use by high school and college athletic teams for practice and tournaments.
 "TO TAX these courses out of business is to defeat this important youth program.
 The committee also noted that many of the golf courses affected by the present taxation system have service and equipment contracts with organizations employing union members. Their closing down because of high tax rates would mean loss of work for these employees.

Farmers Insurance Group Completes Torrance Office

New Torrance offices of Farmers Insurance Group have been completed and are now open at 18536 Hawthorne Blvd., it was announced today by Robert E. Early, first vice president in charge of production.
 The two-story garden type building is of contemporary design of cement block, steel and glass construction with an area of approximately 4000 sq. ft. The building is fully air-conditioned and incorporates the most modern office appointments. It features a large pylon with Farmers Insurance Group sign. The exterior is gray and the interior blends tan with yellow tones.
 THE STRUCTURE, on company-owned property, is built around a patio with tropical plantings.
 Vincent K. Hebson, district manager, and his sales staff are located on the first floor. Hebson became a local agent in the Torrance area in 1950 and a district manager in 1954.
 The claims office, headed by Harve Bair, and serving the entire Torrance area, occupies the second floor. Bair joined the insurance organization in 1949 as a claims representative in Los Angeles.
 HE LATER served in similar positions in the Inglewood and West Los Angeles claims offices and as a liability examiner in Los Angeles Regional Office claims before his appointment as Torrance branch claims manager in 1958.

 Architect was Harold W. LeDuc, associate architect, and contractor was Harold Anderson, A.I.A., and Ernest W. son.
